SUPER EXCITED!

I'm super excited that We Love 3T is turning 10 this year! It's been so much fun sharing so many wonderful stories over the years about the Jackson family.

I'm also equally excited to be sharing this newsletter with you for the month of February because of all the new stories and because it's my birthday month!

For a little birthday fun, I thought I would share that to start my birthday each year I always listen to Michael Jackson's song "Don't Stop Til You Get Enough." It makes me happy every time I hear it!

I love Genevieve's movement and the Dee Dee Jackson Foundation and how the Jackson family is giving back in such powerful ways. I plan to support and highlight their efforts on We Love 3T as much as I can.

I don't think We Love 3T will ever stop because I never get enough of spreading LOVE for the people I love.

Much love to everyone! -Amber

EIGBO: Everything Is Gonna Be Ok

Genevieve Jackson started the EIGBO (Everything Is Gonna Be OK) movement in 2016. She created EIGBO to give people reassurance that no matter what they are going through everything is gonna be ok.

She has created merchandise, a website and a blog that will feature uplifting posts and people's stories that everyone can relate to.

"I am truly excited for you all to ride this journey with me and everything else that is to come." -Genevieve Jackson

EIGBO incorporates positive words and vibes to spread a loving energy throughout the day among individuals.

Genevieve's movement has touch many lives with non-profit fundraisers such as 11/26/2016- The City Eats & EIGBO-Harvest Lunch; 12/01/2016- EIGBO joins the 25 Days of Christmas Week in Los Angeles, collecting canned foods and non perishable items. 02/25/2017- Prepared 800 + lunches for individuals experiencing homelessness. 09/02/2017- EIGBO teamed up with "It Takes A Village." 09/10/2017- The City Eats & EIGBO. 12/26/2017- Gathers and gives out donations for clothes and toy drive in Los Angeles.

"I received a comment on here (Instagram) from @poeticonic that said "Your smile makes me smile everyday, and since I've been going through a difficult time in my life, I have really appreciated that even more!" .. At that point I knew I was moving in the right direction.. Moving in the direction of my true purpose, my purpose to use my voice to spread positivity and love." - Genevieve Jackson

Taryll's Music

Taryll Jackson is the middle son of Toriano Adaryll (Tito Jackson) and Delores Martes Jackson. He and his brothers Taj and TJ Jackson form the group 3T. In 1995, the brothers released the album "Brotherhood" with the help of their father and uncle Michael. On December 29, 2004 the brothers released the "Identity" album.

In 2016, the Taj, Taryll and TJ released "Chapter III." In 2015, the brothers came together for a Lifetime television series The Jacksons: Next Generation were fans got to see the brothers working on the "Chapter III" album together and more.

Before creating the "Chapter III" album. Taryll Jackson worked on releasing two EPs in 2012 in dedication to his mother and uncle Michael. On August 29, 2012 he released the first EP, "Undeniable" featuring 8 songs. The second EP release was "My Life Without You" it became available to fans on May 13, 2012 featuring 7 songs.

Since releasing "Chapter III" Taryll has released "Start It All Over Again" song in 2017. In 2018, Taryll posted on his Instagram account that he was back in the studio, he was excited and ready for 2018. He also posted a video of him working on new music.

Taryll's music can be found on Amazon and Spotify. Taryll also has a website: tarylljackson.com where his music is featured.

I think I can speak for all 3T fans everywhere, we can't wait to see what Taryll and his brothers have in store.

2018 looks to be shaping up as a good year!
